William Padavano Appointed As New Supervisor of Buildings & Grounds

Whippany, NJ: Hanover Township Public Schools (HTPS) Board of Education has appointed William Padavano as the district's new Supervisor of Buildings & Grounds.

Mr. Padavano will begin his tenure in this role on October 1, 2024.

Mr. Padavano shared, "As I step into the role of Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds, I am dedicated to maintaining and enhancing the quality of our school district's facilities. I am grateful and excited to have the opportunity to serve this community in a greater capacity."

Mr. Padavano will be taking over this role from Mr. Tom Gaveglio who has served in the role for the past 4 years and announced his retirement in June.

Mr. Padavano began his tenure in the Hanover Township Public Schools in 2016 at Mountview Road School serving as a building custodian. In 2021, Mr. Padavano transitioned to a role on the district's maintenance crew. He always goes above and beyond to help wherever a building or district need arises. Mr. Padavano's approachable demeanor and willingness to get the job done have not gone unnoticed over the years.

Mr. Justin Toomey, Superintendent of Schools, stated, "Mr. Padavano is a known entity and has worked hard to move his way through the ranks. Through his job performance over the years, he has demonstrated that he is the right person to lead the department forward. Mr. Padavano's commitment to excellence and care for our district's buildings and grounds will serve the entire community well in the years to come."
