Dear Hanover Township Public Schools' Families,

I hope this letter finds you and your family well and that you've been enjoying a wonderful summer filled with memorable moments. As we prepare to welcome our students back to school next week, I am thrilled to re-introduce myself as your new Superintendent of Schools. It is an honor to return home to this incredible "Community that Inspires Excellence," and I am excited to work alongside you in making this school year a remarkable one for our children.

Our schools have been buzzing with activity over the summer as our dedicated team has been hard at work preparing for the new school year. I want to take a moment to express my sincere gratitude to all district- and school-level faculty and staff. Their tireless efforts have ensured that our schools are ready to provide a safe, welcoming, and inspiring environment for your children.

This year, we are embracing the theme of "Commitment to Excellence." Back in June, I shared a video asking, "What does excellence mean to you?" As we move forward, I encourage everyone—students, staff, and families alike—to reflect on this question and how we can collectively strive for excellence in everything we do. Excellence is not just about achievement; it's an attitude, a mindset, and a commitment to doing our best to be our best.

As we embark on this new school year, please know that our entire staff is committed to supporting your children's growth, learning, and success. We look forward to partnering with you to ensure that every student feels valued, empowered, and ready to reach their full potential.

Thank you for your continued trust and partnership. Together, we will make this year one of excellence and achievement for all. See you on September 5!

Wishing you and your families a fun-filled rest of the summer!

Thanks,

Justin Toomey
